

Bucks

Recruit Training 2009

For my recruit training I went to San Francisco California on the Alameda Naval Base. We berthed on the USS Hornet CVN-12. Then they split all the recruits into four companies. Alpha through Delta, I was in Bravo Company. We were taught a lot at RT everything from Damage Control to classifications of ships. All in all I had a great time.